1.1. Attended one of the many quality international trade shows.

The International Machine Tool Show (IMTS) occurs every 2 years at the McCormick Center in Chicago, Illinois. It is the premier machine tool trade show in the United States.

The EMO Europe exhibition, formerly known as the Hannover Messe, is a major international exhibition of mechanical technology. It is held every 3 years at the Hannover Messe in Hanover, Germany, for two weeks, and the Hannover Messe Exhibition Center in Hanover, Germany, for the first week.

The South East Show (SEMS) is held annually in Greenville, South Carolina. This is a major gathering of leading companies such as manufacturers, distributors, and equipment builders, both national and international. The exposition is a major event to purchase new and used equipment.

The value of attending at least one or two of these events cannot be overstated.

When purchasing any large machine tool, it is essential to be exposed to the latest technologies and the latest machines on display at these events. Important to consider is the latest machinery and tooling developments.

It is essential to determine the most suitable and cost-effective machinery for your particular need.

It is essential to talk to the machine tool suppliers exhibiting at these shows. We will help you develop an equipment manufacturer (OEM) list that will fit the opening window for your planning and purchasing process. As the...
